General Data Protection Regulation

For members' information, as from 25th May 2018 the Law changed to improve the protection of personal data. You must now be told how we, 'The Duke of Kent Court Bowls Club', treat and store the personal data we hold about you and ask for your specific consent to being contacted by us in the future. We contact members by telephone, e-mail and post only.

All personal data will be held electronically on a nominated Director's computer, with security paramount.

Personal data held will be deleted whenever a membership lapses, for whatever reason.

If you are happy with these proposals, please complete the following consent form and, kindly, return it to me at the Club's 'End-of-Season' meeting, or before.
